

Metropolitan DC area Bridge teachers

Revised December 12, 2017

The following table details all the people who are actively teaching bridge in some form in the Washington DC metropolitan area. If you know of anyone else, or if you spot any errors in the listings, please email Howard Stevens at hbstevens@aol.com
We are trying to keep this information as current and accurate as possible.

How to read the table:

LEVEL:

- Beginner: Someone who has played little or no bridge before (zero masterpoints)
- Novice: Someone who can bid and play, but needs more experience at the table (1 to 300 masterpoints)
- Intermediate: Someone with 2-5+ years experience at the table (300 to 700 masterpoints)
- Advanced: Someone who has played for years. (700+ masterpoints)

TYPE:

- Individual: One-on-one lessons
- Playing: Plays in a duplicate game and goes over the hands during the game and afterwards
- Small group: Usually 8 or less people
- Group: Usually 8 or more people
- Supervised play: A group where the teacher watches and answers questions during play
- Online: Offers lessons on BBO or similar bridge sites
