Good luck to NVBAers Jay Kelkar, Debnarayan Dhar, and Sven Pride, who will be three of the six players representing our District Six Flight A. Good luck to the NVBA players traveling to the rest of the tournament which runs through Sunday 3/24/24.

Just for 0-20, 0-49, 0-199, and 0-499 Players

Supervised Play is available at Beth El on Thursday evenings! This is especially for players moving from online-only play or informal play or returning to in-person play after a long break. It's in-person play with a round timer, bidding boxes, BridgeMates, and alerts/announcements. There will also be teaching on bidding, play, and defense. "Graduates" of supervised play should find they can play comfortably in face-to-face games competing for masterpoints in clubs and tournaments. Use the RSVP Registration System, or contact Jim Gerding, Jason Carter, or E-mail Kevin O'Brien (OBrien.Bridge+Individual@gmail.com) for more information. All we need to get started is four players, are you one of them? Do you have a friend or relative, neighbor or co-worker who might be interested? This will only cost you ... Beth El's $2 Security Fee (pay by credit card at Beth El) and your Thursday evening, about 6:30 - 9:30PM. Need a ride? We may even be able to help with that, but no guarantee.
