President's Message

by Bruce Culmer

I would like to thank those who helped make the Holiday party a success. The dishes that you prepared were very much enjoyed and appreciated. Speaking of parties, February 14 is the last unit game for which David Gottfried will be the Chief Director. He has worked very hard for the Unit and we appreciate it. Although he is not leaving the area, he will be missed. We are planning to have a party that night to thank him for his contributions to the Unit. Come out and party with us. We also want to welcome Marshall Kushner as the new Chief Director beginning March 7.

The summer will be quickly upon us. There is lots of excitement with the Summer Nationals here in Washington (July 18-28 at the Marriott Wardman Park Hotel). Margot Hennings (703-560-0245), the Tournament Chair, or Lee Ann Jensen (301-949-7467), the Volunteer Coordinator, will be happy to hear from anyone who can help. Also, if you know of any company that might be interested in being a sponsor at the Nationals, please contact Margot or Charity Sack (301-718-8825). Cash donations and donations in kind (snacks and trinkets that can be used as table gifts throughout the sessions) are all welcome!

In May the Unit will be holding elections at the Annual Meeting for the Vice President, Treasurer and three members of the Board of Directors. The Unit needs people who are willing to work on the Education program, the Intermediate/Novice program, coordinating the mentoring program, working with the clubs to schedule GNT-NAP qualifying events, and other areas. We hold ten meetings a year. Please contact any member of the board and let them know that you are willing to be nominated.

We have started sending the newsletter by e-mail as well as by regular mail. If you would be interested in receiving the newsletter by e-mail instead of, or as well as, by regular mail, please send an e-mail to Newsletter@nvba.org so that we can add you to the list.

Web Updates

The NVBA Board would like to thank David Milton for all the time and effort he spent designing and maintaining the NVBA website over the past several years. The website has become such an important part of our bridge lives that it's hard to remember the time where there wasn't one. So thank you, David, for all your pioneering work.

The Board would also like to welcome Melissa Borsody as our new NVBA Webmaster. If you have any ideas or suggestions for the site, please give her a call: 703-378-1991.

Club Updates

- Bernie Oetjen's Monday night game at the Knights of Columbus Hall in Arlington has a new and earlier starting time: 7:00.

New Bridge Program for Teens

by JoAnne Pretti

Calling all students from Longfellow, Langley, McLean, TJ, Flint Hill, and all points north, south, east, and west. There's a new bridge club for those who have been in school bridge programs or who want to learn to play. The first session of The Bridge Roundup will meet Saturday, February 9th, at the Old Firehouse Teen Center (1448 Old Chain Bridge Road in McLean) from 2 to 4:15. Come, meet new friends, have fun, and improve your study skills while you are enjoying a cerebral sport. There will be a brief lesson, and then a fun bridge game.

This is going to be an ongoing program—the next session is February 23rd, same time and place. We hope that this will become an every-other-Saturday regular event.

For more information or to let us know you are coming, please call Sharon Harrison at the Old Fire House (703-448-TEEN) or JoAnne Pretti (703-821-2254).

Unit Game Update

by David Gottfried, Chief Unit Director

I hope you'll all be able to come on February 14th when I will be directing my last game as NVBA Chief Unit Director. From late 1997, when the job became available and I was serving as Secretary of the NVBA, I very much wanted to take on the challenge of becoming Director of the Unit Game, to make the event the place every bridge player wants to be on Thursday evening—a pleasant, yet highly competitive environment. For better or worse, it was my vision to do more than just show up and run a duplicate game—I would impart my “style.”

My enthusiasm for directing at the Unit hasn't changed in the past 5 years, but other things have. In June, my family and I moved to North Potomac, Maryland. In November, I began a new position at the Department of Justice that requires an increased time commitment. Finally, I learned that Lauren and Mark are expecting a baby brother in early July.

Marshall Kushner will assume the role of Chief Director on March 7. The Unit is fortunate to have a capable, tournament-rated director to take the reins. I intend to continue tournament directing, at a somewhat reduced schedule, and I look forward to seeing all of you at tournaments and occasionally when I substitute for Marshall on Thursday nights.

I sincerely thank the Board for the privilege of serving as Unit Director and all of you for your support.

Easybridge! Updates

by Ron Kral

The two Easybridge! 1 sessions held in the Fall of 2001 were a great success. They generated about 20 new ACBL members, several 5-table sections at our KOCH sectionals, and a 4-table group at Norma's Saturday morning game. Easybridge! was such a success that the NVBA Board OK'd another round. Due to popular demand, we'll be having both Easybridge! 1 AND Easybridge! 2 sessions this time. The classes are fun and informative and follow Edith McMullin's Easybridge! formula to a T. Everyone has a great time.

Please tell your non-Bridge playing friends about the new Friday Easybridge! 1 class at the Reston Community Center. It starts at 12:30 on February 1st. For novices with a little experience or Easybridge! 1 graduates, Easybridge! 2 will be held at the Masonic Lodge at 6911 Columbia Pike in Annandale. The Easybridge! 2 class starts Sunday, February 3rd, at 1:00. Each Sunday will have a stand-alone lesson, so anyone who wants to come can start anytime, even if they miss the first couple of Sundays. I'll be doing the presentation at both sessions and will be glad to answer any question you may have: my phone number is 703-437-0342.

Please spread the word about these two new Easybridge! classes: we need you to help us get more new people into this wonderful game!

The Jack of Hearts

by Marshall Kuschner

The last time we visited Las Vegas was in 1991. It was summer, it was 106 degrees at 1 am, the hot new hotels were the Mirage and Caesar's Palace, and we drew 24,221 tables, the mother of all nationals. How big was it? It was so big we called it Operation Desert Mob. It was so big that side games were running 75 -90 tables. One day, a regional stratified pair game drew 1,142 pairs. On another day in a regional Swiss, the sellers ran out of entries and when more paper arrived were still selling when first round results were coming in.

In 2001, it was November and the weather was quite cool. The Mirage and Caesar's are still there, but the stars of the strip are now the Luxor, the Venetian, Paris, New York, Bellagio, Treasure Island, Mandalay Bay, and many others. The Hilton, which hosted the tournament, is oddly traditional in the capital of glitz, but it has the advantage of sufficient convention space to house all those tables. The count was 16,818, the largest Fall NABC ever. Of course, it might have been bigger with a normal schedule instead of Sunday thru Tuesday and without Sept. 11. As tournaments go, Las Vegas was not extravagant, but it didn't have to be. The hospitality was spotty in quality and quantity, but in a town that is open 24/7, that's not a problem. The playing space, while lacking ballroom atmosphere, was well lit and comfortable, and unlike 1991, the space was not overflowing.

The rest of Las Vegas, however, seemed oblivious to our presence. Volcanoes erupted, white tigers yawned, one-armed bandits issued musical entreaties (which Bobby Gookin answered), and dealers drew to 21 with annoying regularity. It's a wonder anyone was able to play bridge with all the distractions, but there were some fine performances. Unfortunately, few of them were by NVBA members. Hugh Grosvenor had overalls in three national events, Jeff Roman had one, and that was it. Our proudest moment was supplied by former Northern Virginian Paul Erb, who finished second in the North American Swiss. Regional wins were recorded by Paul Bubendey and John Ashe, David Milton, June Hoyer and Mark Newman, and Bobby Gookin. June and Mark along with Julia Brown became LMs in Las Vegas. As for my own abysmal performance, I have a good excuse. I went to see David Copperfield and he made my brain disappear.

Board Meeting Summaries

November 12, 2001

Hall of Fame. Jim Allen, Chairman of the Hall of Fame Committee, made a presentation to the Board about the current proposal for a District 6 Hall of Fame. After much discussion, the Board voted against supporting the Hall of Fame as currently proposed.

2002 Unit Game Schedule.

—The Board voted to support the Junior Fund Appreciation game scheduled on February 14, 2002.

—Rather than hold a third GNT qualifying game on February 7, 2002, the Board voted to hold a Stratified Unit Championship game instead.

—LM-NLM Game. The Board voted to continue the past practice of holding a LM-NLM game in 2002. It is scheduled for May 30.

—September 12 game. The Board was offered a choice of participating in the Instant Matchpoint game or the MBA STaC scheduled that week. It voted to participate in the STaC.

—The Unit's annual charity game will be held in conjunction with the Annual Meeting on May 9, 2002. The Board voted that this year's recipient of the NVBA's charity proceeds will be CrisisLink, a volunteer Washington area service that persons having health or emotional crises can call for help.

—President Bruce Culmer announced to the Board that he has reluctantly accepted the resignation of Chief Unit Game Director David Gottfried. David has a new job with the Department of Justice that makes it difficult for him to work regularly as Chief Director on Thursday nights.

Bruce noted that David has done a great job running our Unit Game, has worked hard to build it up, and has performed his duties responsibly and capably. Marshall Kuschner will take over David's position as Chief Unit Game Director in March.

NVBA Web Site. Melissa Borsody is the new NVBA Webmaster. She is redesigning the site somewhat to simplify it and make it more accessible to users with less sophisticated software capabilities. Users are encouraged to give any suggestions they have for the website to Melissa (703-378-1991).

Easybridge!. Ron Kral has overseen the running of several Easybridge! sessions at the last NVBA and WBL Sectionals. He is planning to do another Easybridge! 1 series starting in February, as well as an Easybridge! 2 series for those who have already had Easybridge! 1.

January 14, 2002

Unit Game. The Board voted to award free plays to winners of section tops in all pair games played at Beth El that are not part of Sectional tournaments, to include STaCs and NAP qualifying games. The Board voted against awarding first place prizes to winners of GNT qualifying games.

Sectionals. The NVBA and WBL have agreed to split the costs for six free plays to the Washington NABC tournament in July to be awarded at the next six Sectionals to players in the open game, Senior games, and limited games.

Audit Report. The Board voted to adopt several of the recommendations made by the Audit Committee with regard to counting receipts at the Unit game, accounting for scrip purchased each year, tracking fees paid to the ACBL, and taking an inventory of NVBA supplies and equipment. Several Board members will look into options for investing NVBA funds at a higher rate of interest and make recommendations to the Board at a future meeting.

Board Elections in May

The NVBA will elect a Vice President, Treasurer, and three Board members at our Annual Meeting in May. Interested candidates should talk with any of the current Board Members (see the back cover for a list) to get an idea of what's involved and to let your interest be known.

Short bios of the candidates will be published in the April-May Newsletter.

Spring Bridge Classes

Nancy Abbott will be teaching Bridge 2, 3, and 4 at Longfellow Intermediate School in McLean on Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday nights as part of the Fairfax County Park Authority's Leisure and Wellness Program. Bridge 2 is a continuation of Beginning Bridge; Bridge 3 is supervised play for novices; and Bridge 4 covers common conventions and more advanced conventions. Nancy (703-276-0838) can answer your questions about course content, but call the County (703-222-4664) for registration and prices. (All these courses are described in "Parktakes," a magazine published by Fairfax County Park Authority. To subscribe, call 703-222-4664.)

Marshall Kuschner periodically holds small classes for advanced beginner/intermediate players in his home in Reston. Call Marshall at 703-758-9153 for details.

JoAnne Pretti will be teaching three bridge courses at the McLean Community Center. The first (March 4-April 29; 1-3 on Monday afternoons) is the ACBL Diamond Series (which focuses on developing a strategic game plan and includes a bidding review). The second (March 4-April 29; 7:30-9:30 on Monday evenings) is a basics and brush up course—the ACBL Club Series (which provides a solid grounding in hand evaluation, bidding, play of the hand, and defense). The third (March 6-May 1; 7:30-9:30 on Wednesday evenings) is Audrey Grant's Commonly Used Conventions, suitable for the advancing player (focusing on Stayman, weak-twos, Jacoby transfers, as well as major/minor suit openings and responses). JoAnne can be reached at 703-821-2254, but call the Community Center (703-790-0123) for prices and registration information.

Dave McIntyre will be teaching three courses at Nick's Restaurant, Fairfax Circle at Rt. 50 and Old Lee Highway. The first, Supervised Bridge, starts at noon on March 25 and continues for 10 3-hour sessions ($50). The class is 45 minutes of presentation of selected bridge topics, followed by various bridge formats; questions are encouraged. The second is Audrey Grant's Commonly Used Conventions, 10 2-hour sessions starting on Thursday, March 28, at 11 am ($70). The course is the natural follow on to the Club, Diamond, Heart series. And the third is No-Trump from A to Z, 10 2-hour sessions starting Thursday, March 28, at 7:30 pm ($70). It covers all the conventions related to 1 NT and 2 NT openers; there is a 1 hour lecture, followed by 1 hour of bidding using selected, pre-dealt hands. (Because these classes are held at a restaurant, there is a $2 door fee unless ordering $5 or more—eat-in or take-out—from the menu.)

Farewell To Bridge

(Do you ever feel like this?)

I'm giving up bridge—tonight's my last night.
It's Amen to Stayman—I give up the fight.
The Transfers and No Trumps keep giving me troubles,
I can't sleep at night for thinking of Doubles.

If it weren't for the coffee and really good food,
I'd have left long ago when opponents were rude.
The gloaters and whiners will make you plain crazy,
And you often wonder if the slow ones are dazey.

My cards and my partner's seem to be rotten,
Playing a hand is what I've sadly forgotten.
Who has played what and what are the trumps,
Revokes and misbids make all of us grumps.

So for now it's all over—I'm off to the backwoods,
I'm waving good-bye to Gerber and Blackwood.
I can't stand the hassle, I can't stand the pain,
I'm making those bad plays again and again.

I'm giving up bridge—tonight's a bad night,
Defense is horrid and nothing's gone right.
Who can keep track of Ace from Ace-Kings,
Odd-Even discards and MUD of all things.

Then my partner is slow and a real bidding dope,
His weak two's are trouble and I'm losing all hope.
My points are not high, and I'm wondering why
He keeps on bidding right on up to the sky.

We're in 3 No again and all my hope fades,
When surprise, surprise, his high bidding pays.
We were winning all tricks and defenders felt sick.
I have to admit my partner's sometimes a "b"rick.

But I'm giving up bridge—tonight's my last night.
Farewell to conventions—I give up the fight!
Stuff those Splinters and Cuebids right into the trash,
Along with Bergen and DONT, Michaels and CRASH.

So I leave with few words but some that are true,
Bridge may be a game not for me but for you.
You be kind to your partners and don't mind their cheek,
For it's only a game—oh! and see you next week.

Cookbooks Still Available

To help raise funds for our Summer NABC, we have published a cookbook containing recipes from the 1993 Summer Nationals that were held in D.C. Maybe you remember the great hospitality at that tournament??...if so, you'll want to get a copy for sure. All of those recipes can be yours for a mere $9.99! Cookbooks are available at all NVBA and WBL Sectionals and both Unit Games!

Summer NABC Website

Are you one of those folks who can't resist peeking behind the temporary walls to check out construction sites? If so, then go to the Summer NABC website—and watch as Webmaster David Milton builds this website from the ground up. Right now you can find information on housing, parking, upcoming promotions, the tournament schedule, babysitting services, and you can even register for a mailing list for tournament updates and for a chance to win a free entry fee, extra hospitality suite tickets, or a coveted onsite parking pass!

Volunteers Needed for Summer NABCs

Volunteers are needed in many, many different areas during the Summer 2002 ACBL Nationals to be held in Washington July 18-28. Wheredo your interests lie? We need players to work at the registration, partnership, and prize desks, plus at the information center.

Or maybe you'd prefer leading a morning tour or chaperoning a group of youngsters on an outing. The hospitality suite will be looking for lots of help. Whatever your interest, we can match you with a job...and it's a great way to meet people from all over the country while supporting bridge.

For this effort to be a success, it will take the help of hundreds(!) of local players. Please call LeeAnn Jensen, Volunteer Chair, at 301-949-7467.
