The 199er Game

By Ron Kral, NVBA President

"In January and February 2015 any player with less than 200 masterpoints can play in the 199er game at Beth El for just $1!"

One of the things I tell people is 'A' players don't grow on trees. Everyone starts out with zero masterpoints at some time. Getting newer players into the game and keeping the Thursday night 199er game healthy is very high on my priority list. The NVBA has an enormous number of 0-200 players. I'd love for ALL of them to play in our weekly Thursday night Unit Game at Beth El Congregation on Seminary Rd. in Alexandria, VA!

In addition, it's very important way to attract new players to the game. Once people start playing and discover the game's fascination, they become enamored with it and continue to play. But there are so many leisure time activities these days. Bridge has to provide entertainment and fun that outweighs other amusements. Like any business or product that wants to grow, an incentive is sometimes needed to get people to try it out.

There are many people in northern Virginia who I believe would enjoy a weekly night of bridge, but for one reason or another have not come to play in our Thursday night Unit Game. To entice these people, the NVBA Board wants to give them an incentive to try it out. In January and February 2015 any player with less than 200 masterpoints can play in the 199er game at Beth El for just $1.00! Non-ACBL members are welcome too! The only date that's not included in this offer is our February Sectional, Thursday, February 19, 2015. BUT, if you DO come that night, you'll get a ½ price coupon for any other Sectional event on Friday 2/20, Saturday 2/21 or Sunday 2/22. I hope you will take advantage of this special offer and bring your friends out and give our game a try.

The Jack of Hearts

by Marshall Kushner

Las Vegas (LV) is dead! Well, maybe not dead but certainly on life support. Vegas has long been the most popular of NABC destinations, and it still is, but it has fallen a long way. I began playing bridge in Los Angeles in 1979. There was a National in Las Vegas that summer, and everyone was pretty excited about it. I didn't even know what a National was, so I was one of the few who didn't go. Attendance was over 18,500 tables. By the time the next one rolled around in 1985, I was on board, and folks were even more excited. The over/under was 20,000 tables and LV hoped to be the first to hit that mark. Ooooh, just missed. The final count was 19,827.5. Las Vegas was disappointed. It was even more disappointed the following year when Toronto racked up 21,075 tables. Vegas was determined to take back the title when their next turn came in 1991, and take it they did. That NABC set a mark that will never be broken: 24,221 tables. Optimism for the future was high, but then two things happened. The first was that Las Vegas didn't want us back. You see, in those days, gambling was Vegas' lifeblood. NABCs took up two weekends, and bridge players, by and large, were not gamblers. Lots of room nights taken up with non-players.

It was ten years before they agreed to host another National with two provisos. First, it would be in the Fall and, second, it would span only one weekend. The ACBL juggled the schedule to work around one weekend, but before the tournament could take place, the second thing happened. 9/11. Folks were now goosey about flying. Vegas plummeted to 16,818. Not bad when you can drop 8,000 tables and be the largest Fall National ever. Nevertheless, Vegas was depressed. Now we don't know what negotiations took place or what 9/11 did to Vegas, but in 2008 they agreed to have us back in the Summer and on our normal schedule. Optimism soared and it was hoped that Vegas would, once again, hit 20,000. Ooooh, just missed at 19,720.

Interesting Hands from the World Youth Bridge Team Championships in August — from David Soukup, our NVBA Player on the USA2 Team and from the Daily Bulletin

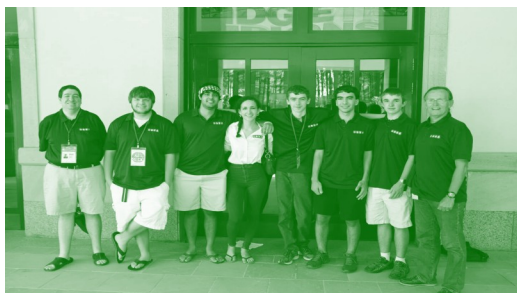

Istanbul: gateway to the East, capital of the Ottoman Empire, and, from August 13-23, 2014, mecca of youth bridge. Teams from 26 countries converged on the city to compete in the 15th World Youth Bridge Team Championships. There were four divisions of competition: under-26 (Juniors), under-21 (Youngsters), Girls, and a new event, under-16 (Kids). The competition in the Youngsters group, where NVBA player David Soukup competed on Team USA2, was tough. Here is one of the hands David found interesting during the round-robin stage:

Dummy: 43
AT QJT64
7432

Your hand: J96
KJ87
AK9
JT8

The auction was quick: declarer, who was dealer, opened 1NT, raised to 2NT, which was passed out. David's partner led a fourth-best ♠5, and his ♠J loses to the ♠Q.

In addition to the holiday festivities, the NVBA Board will present two trophies at this party. One is the Sara Goodwin trophy, which goes to the NVBA member who has participated in the most NVBA events (Unit game and Sectionals) between the dates of December 1, 2013 and November 30, 2014. The other is the presentation of the Dave Murray award, which recognizes an NVBA player who demonstrates good bridge skills and great sportsmanship at the bridge table. Trophy presentations will take place at 6:30 PM, followed by the game at 7:00 PM.

This year we were back, but no one was expecting records to fall. I guess the economy was a factor. The host hotel was showing its age and had been sold since 2008. About three weeks before the National, it was sold again. Estimates were around 16,500 and were spot on. The actual was 16,616.5. Hospice was summoned. But hope springs eternal. The next Las Vegas Summer NABC will be in 2019 at the new Cosmopolitan Hotel. Long live Las Vegas!

On the field of battle Robert Brady led the way with a second place finish in the Mixed BAM as well as a 7th in the 0-10,000 Pairs. Those who followed the way included Helene Bauman with Jim Wakefield (0-10,000 Pairs), Ann Lindley with Al Duncker (Senior Swiss & Mixed BAM), Jay Kelkar (Open Pairs), Monique Smith (Mixed BAM), Jeffrey Schwartz (Mini-Spingold II), Ai-Tai Lo (Fast Pairs) and Stephen Drodge and Tom Musso (0-10,000 Mixed Swiss). Me? Mostly I worked, I played one day with my grandson, and the rest of the time I played with other directors. I can only do so much.

The C Files: One evening at dinner someone was going into excessive detail about a personal issue. Candy's take was, "That's too much TMI." From the Department of Redundancy Department.

In Memoriam - LARRY CLANDORF

Although he may not have won many masterpoints to put him at Sectional Master, you could not have found a much more enthusiastic player than Larry. Even while toiling away at his custom furniture business in New York City, Larry found the time and energy to learn bridge "for retirement." Party bridge soon gave way to duplicate bridge.

Once he did retire, he played duplicate at a Bayside country club. Then upon moving to Virginia, because of severe leg problems, he approached duplicat

In Memoriam - Bob Walsh

Our dear friend and bridge partner Bob Walsh passed away on September 13, 2014. I say "our" bridge partner because Bob played with just about everyone. He especially loved to help new players earn their "gold". He was a kind, supportive bridge partner and always a gentleman.

Besides bridge, Bob loved his family, Ireland, and discount shopping. He loved getting a bargain, especially with a coupon.

Bob was a genuine, good honorable person. He will be missed by all his friends in Northern Virginia bridge.

"Into every Life a little rain must fall"

Congratulations to the NVBA Players Representing D6 at the North American Pairs at the Spring NABC in New Orleans, LA!

Finishing 3rd overall and representing us in Flight A: Hailong Ao and Jian-Jian Wang

Finishing 1st overall in Flight B: Mel Yudkin and Deb Dhar

Finishing 1st overall in Flight C: Adam Gann and Blake Schwartzbach
Finishing 3rd overall in Flight C: Rick Bingham and Dean Baird

Declarer then played the ♠5 to the ♠10 and ♠A, partner contributing the ♠3, upside-down count. After you win the ♠A (it makes no difference if the first diamond is ducked), what do you lead?

If partner has led spades from ATxxx, he will be chomping at the bit for a spade return, but if he has some helpful holding in hearts (Q9x would do it) the seven of hearts is called for. Even a club could be right, if partner was only looking for your suit with his spade lead and is sitting on AQ9x. However, since six tricks are needed to defeat the contract, whatever black-suit lead must be made can wait until you get in again with the ♠K, and by then partner will have made a helpful discard on the third round of diamonds. In the meantime, however, dummy's diamond suit looms as a source of tricks for declarer, with the ♥A as a certain entry. Better to attack that entry now - but a low heart back is not good enough, as declarer will simply insert the ♥Q (or win dummy's ♥10.) The only shift to kill dummy's diamonds is the ♥K!

David reports that most of the defenders in the field found this Merrimack Coup, named after a Confederate ironclad that was scuttled in 1862 in order to prevent the ship from falling into Union hands. In the same way, declarer can now either win the ♥A or see it driven out by a subsequent heart lead. Either way, dummy is now dead after a diamond duck.

In the Youngsters division, USA1 performed quite well, capturing a silver medal for the second year in a row. USA2, David's team, hovered near the brink of contention, but was unfortunately not able to make a decisive push to achieve qualifying position, finishing about 9.5 VPs out of a knockout berth. Nevertheless, David says everyone involved had a wonderful time in Istanbul, and all are looking forward toward to the 2016 championships in Italy.

Another interesting hand played at 50 different tables with a variety of auctions that Phillip Alder wrote up in the Daily Bulletin of this World Youth Team event was:

AQ74
A97542
K2

K1098632
Q83
A2

North opens 1♥, East overcalls 2NT (showing the two lower unbid suits), and West shows some enthusiasm for the minors. If you are North-South and end up in 6♠, what would you do after West leads: (1) a low diamond, or (2) the ♥K, or (3) the ♠J?

This was the full deal:

Dealer West. N-S Vul.

	AQ74
	A97542
	K2

K	J106

J10865	KQ743

K1098632

How do East-West get on in clubs or diamonds and North-South in hearts or spades?

This deal was played at 50 tables. In the 25 matches, the total number of IMPs scored was 231 -- an average of 9.24 IMPs per match. Three times the board was flat. In one of the Girls' matches, both sides made five of a major exactly. In two Junior matches, once both North-South pairs went one down in six spades (and both could have made their contract!), and once both declarers made five spades exactly.

Have you worked it all out? In clubs, which would probably be played by West if East bid an Unusual 2NT over 1♥, North must lead a diamond to hold the contract to 10 tricks. When South gets in with the ♣J, he leads a heart to his partner's ace and receives a diamond ruff. No pair found that defense. In diamonds, again probably by West, the defenders can take three tricks: the ♥A, the ♠A and a club ruff. In hearts, the defenders will get one heart and one diamond. Last, but most definitely not least, in spades, if South is the declarer, West, to defeat the contract, must lead either the ♥K or a diamond. If a diamond, East must win as cheaply as possible and then either try to cash another diamond or switch to exactly the ♥6. If 6♠ is played by North (presumably after a start of 1♥-(2NT)-3♠ by South showing spades (if you play "Unusual over Unusual"), East must lead precisely the ♥6 to defeat the contract!

games at a senior center and private residences. Severe peripheral vascular disease caused him to lose both legs above the knees, but did not dampen his willingness to try bridge on the computer, until he was able to get to games once more. Just shortly before his demise on February 14, 2014, he was still playing.

Hopefully there is a place up in the skies where he will be able to resume playing with his beloved partner Oscar Pultz.
